séance

Fri 16 Apr 8pm

This Hitchcockian style psychological thriller with its totally unexpected climax will have you gripped from the start.

After losing her husband in the First World War, Lady Billingham, overcome with grief, is convinced by her maid to meet a Medium. The séance that ensues reveals an apparition of the dead husband, whose ghost then continues to haunt his young widow, insisting that they should be together, forever. Ultimately, she must choose between life alone or death with her husband.

Normal Ticket Price: £12 (Concessions: £10) Suitable for ages 12+

However, tickets are being issued for TYTC members for FREE under the Night Less Ordinary Scheme. I will not be on duty for this event as I am away but if your child and a friend came together with an adult it would mean you would only have to pay for the adult. If you're interested in reserving tickets please drop me a line.

Apologies...

Due to building work (we're having a new £20,000 cinema screen fitted over the stage) on Monday 29th March we won't be able to have a parent share workshop as we would do normally. This is an unfortunate bit of timing but we've been waiting for three months for the engineers to have a 48 hour window for fitting and the end of March will create the least disruption.

As such, the TYTC workshops will up sticks and move across town for one-night-only! Our base for the evening will be St James Church Hall (1 Ferndale Road, Tunbridge Wells, TN2 3RL) and the group times will be the same. Due to this extremely unusual move we will reschedule the parent share for the first half of next term.

Obviously, this is not an ideal situation but thankfully it is a one-off!

Some of you have asked about complimentary tickets for Igor. Unfortunately, this show (along with Adventures in Wonderland) is a private hire and as such I can arrange a discounted ticket rate but unlike most children's shows it won't be completely free and I won't be in attendance at either performance.
