If you're a regular visitor to our website, www.trinitytheatre.net you will notice that the TYTC pages have been given a truly 2010 dust down and are now presented in Flash.

If you miss a newsletter then this is the quickest way of finding the last copy. In the coming months I'm hoping to start including a video blog by the children telling you exactly what they've been up to! "iCarly" meets "TYTC" ..? watch this space

Today is our last session of the term.

We now break until Monday 3rd May 2010 (which is a bank holiday Monday but we'll still be here so don't worry). If your child is intending to come back for the Summer Term and you haven't already done so drop me a cheque for payment as our Early Bird rate runs out today. Knowing how busy a parent's day can be I'll gladly honour any cheque for the Early Bird rate until the end of the week.

During the break we have a children's show: "The Adventures of Pinocchio"
Sun 11 Apr 2010 3pm

Presented by The Cat's Grin Theatre Company

Can Pinocchio become a real puppet is propelled along a perilous path, meeting a cast of colourful characters along the way. From the Talking Cricket, through the Clever Fox and the Stupid Cat to Naughty Lampwick and the Kind Fairy, Pinocchio learns many valuable lessons. Keeping faith with Collodi's word-play and slapstick humour, the enthralling exploits of the mischievous marionette are brought magically to life.

Running Time: 1hr

Usual ticket price: £5 TYTC: £FREE

I won't be able to make the performance so parents will need to chaperone their own children but if you'd like me to arrange tickets please text me on 07790427268 before the Sunday to let me know how many tickets you'd like and I'll have them put aside at the box-office for you.

Art Club

When we come back in May, I'd like to set up an Arts & Crafts group for smaller children to run from 5.00 until 6.15 on Monday evenings. It'll be aimed at children 5 to 8 yrs with a strong emphasis on fun! At the moment the proposed fee for this project would be £45.00 per child for a ten week period and would be inclusive of all the materials. At the moment I am simply seeing if there would be enough interest to justify this as a project but if you think your child would be interested in this group please drop me a line at with your contact details.
